Chiang Rai, Thailand: Nestled in the emerald hills of Northern Thailand, Tatvani is quietly transforming the concept of luxury travel. Set within 29 acres of peaceful, private estate, this all-inclusive retreat is reserved for just one group at a time – ensuring total seclusion, security and exclusivity.

Positioned as one of Asia’s most extraordinary experiential retreats, Tatvani delivers a deeply personal escape where every detail is thoughtfully curated, and no two stays are ever the same. Whether it’s waking to the sound of birdsong, swimming with koi in wild ponds, harvesting herbs in fragrant gardens, or learning the art of Thai cuisine from award-winning chefs, Tatvani turns every moment into an unforgettable experience, and it’s all included in the stay.

At its heart lies a rare, reverent connection to nature, best reflected in the Tatvani Elephant Sanctuary. This is not a tourist attraction, but an impactful sanctuary where rescued elephants roam freely and Guests are invited to walk side-by-side with them, learning their stories without chains, rides, or performances. It’s raw. It’s emotional. It’s real. And it stays with you long after the journey ends.

Wellness at Tatvani is equally immersive. Rooted in centuries-old Thai healing traditions and combined with modern practices, the Tatvani Spa offers unlimited treatments tailored to each guest. Daily yoga, forest walks, herbal compress therapies, and wild swimming with koi invite reconnection with the self, in a serene setting where even the Estate’s gentle water buffalo roam undisturbed.

The culinary experience is no less exceptional. In Tatvani’s open-air kitchen, Guests join internationally trained chefs for intimate cooking sessions, using herbs freshly picked from the Estate’s gardens. Meals unfold across candlelit pavilions, overlooking rice fields and lotus ponds- with menus and mealtimes customised entirely around each Guest’s preferences.

For those seeking adventure, mountain biking through hidden jungle trails or teeing off at the nearby Santiburi Golf Course – designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr. – adds a welcome contrast to the Estate’s tranquil pace. But here, there are no schedules. No itineraries. Just an unfolding journey, shaped uniquely around each Guest’s desires.

Tatvani isn’t a hotel stay. It’s a living story. A journey into the soul of Northern Thailand, where luxury is defined not by opulence, but by immersion, privacy, and presence.

Bookings are now open for the 2025 season. Discover more at Tatvani.com.
